

SPECIAL TOPICS IN SOCIAL STUDIES: HEBREW SCRIPTURES (BIBLE LITERACY) 11-12

Prerequisite – None

Half credit; Year

Course #-9187

This course will follow federal law maintaining religious neutrality and will consider the Bible in a secular academic context. Students will study biblical content and narratives that are prerequisites to understanding contemporary society and culture, including literature, art, music, tradition, and public policy. It will familiarize students with the Hebrew Scriptures and their influence on law, history, government, literature, art, music, customs, morals, values, and culture. This course may not be available at all campuses.
